The Current Situation and Challenges

Iftekhar Zaman has headed the Bangladeshi chapter of Transparency International, an anti-corruption and human rights organization, since 2004. Since then, despite hostility from successive ruling parties, the organization has repeatedly brought cases of corruption and abuse of power in the country to light. His recent work includes the triad of corruption, human rights violation and injustice in Bangladesh over the years. Iftekhar is a participant in an international conference organized by the Bangladesh Forum Germany, whose members include Amnesty International. Other conference participants from Bangladesh and Germany will also be present at the event.

The lecture and subsequent discussion will be held in English. Translation will be provided if needed. Admission is free.
